

Practical aspects of cooperation development

group 2

International cooperation

- The central unit of international cooperation would consist of three members (two employees and one student) whose sole duty would be coordinate the work of the Academy at the international level

THE TASKS OF THE CENTRAL INTERNATIONAL BODY

- different international projects: Tempus, IPPA
- student and staff mobility programmes: Erasmus Mundus, Leonardo Da Vinci, Jean Monnet, CEEPUS, MIFF, MIPD....

Since we have learned that a new encompassing programme is to be introduced under the name of YES EUROPE which will cover the ideas and projects such as the above mentioned we will bear in mind this particular development

INTERNATIONAL TASKS

- student mobility
- staff mobility
- harmonising study programmes
- student practice
- reasearch and project development
- sharing information and experience
- video-conference lectures
- international projects
- nurturing multiculturalism and tolerance
- preparation of the students for the mobility: language, curricula
- tracing international projects and
- training in project development and participation

STUDENT SERVICE

- Unifying body would consist of three members whose sole duty would be to take care of the information flow, fees, study programmes, data base, paper work

STUDENT SERVICES TASKS

- coordination of information among the members of the Academy
- exchange essential information
- provide documentation necessary for the student mobility
- to take good care and archive the entire paper work relating to student data base
- to prepare regular statistical reports: graduation rate, success of the studying process at different levels and study programmes
- providing general framework for unifying forms, document patterns, diplomas
- unifying procedures regarding exams, lectures, calendar

THE END

